

Please find the new amendment below which will be applicable starting from Monday 15 October 2018.

When applying for a private visa with the form made out to the Ambassador, it is required to provide original birth certificate with a translation into Russian language done by a sworn interpreter + copy of the original document and a translation. It is not required to notarize the translation in the Russian Consulate.

Please find the updated list of documents:

Extra additional documents for those applicants who have chosen the second type of the invitation (a written application from a citizen of the Russian Federation made out to the director of the Embassy of the Russian Federation in The Netherlands):

1. Valid Russian Foreign Passport of the applicant-Russian citizen + copy
2. Document confirming legal residency of the applicant-Russian citizen in the Netherlands (visa, residence permit, passport) + copy
3. Documents proving the relationship to the applicant-Russian citizen (marriage certificate, birth certificate) + copy

IMPORTANT!

Please note: It is required to provide original birth certificate with a translation into Russian language done by a sworn interpreter + copy of the original document and a translation. It is not required to notarize the translation in the Russian Consulate.

4. Copy of the first main page of the applicant's passport
5. All other main documents (application, passport, form made out to the Ambassador, insurance, photo);